Ain & Bank Announces Hire of Amy Spain as Associate

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20, 2021 – Ain & Bank is pleased to announce the hiring of Amy Spain as an associate. Ain & Bank is one of the top family practice firms in the country, specializing in divorce, property division, custody and support issues, business evaluation, business succession, related tax issues, and integrated solutions for wealth management and preservation. The firm also serves as general and civil litigation counsel to high net-worth clients and their businesses.

Previously, Spain worked for Cottrell Fletcher & Cottrell in Alexandria, Va. representing clients in all aspects of family law and was a member of the appellate practice before the Supreme Court of Virginia and Virginia Court of Appeals.

Her professional honors include Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch 2021 and 2022.

As an associate with Ain & Bank, Spain's practice is focused on all aspects of family law litigation to include divorce, equitable distribution of assets, spousal and child support determinations and modifications, and child custody and visitation matters. Her practice also includes appellate advocacy. She has written and contributed to briefs for the Supreme Court of Virginia and the Court of Appeals of Virginia. She also routinely negotiates successful settlements to family law disputes.

Spain is devoted to helping her clients navigate through family law matters, and she works closely with clients to understand the client's goals and to ensure that the client is well informed and engaged in every phase of the case.

"We are delighted to add Amy to our team of highly talented, knowledgeable and hard-working lawyers," said Natalia Wilson, managing partner and principal of Ain & Bank. "Her experience in family law and passion for her clients perfectly align with the growth and direction of our firm."

Spain graduated from George Mason University School of Law in 2015 following a Bachelor of Arts degree from Virginia Tech in English and Communications in 2008.
